

Coaches Code of Conduct

Standards & Responsibilities for All Coaches — Glen Villa Juniors FC

Season: 2025/26
Issued by: Glen Villa Juniors FC
Version: 1.0

1. Introduction

Coaches at Glen Villa Juniors FC are role models for our young players. The way we conduct ourselves directly shapes the environment and culture of the club.

This Code of Conduct applies to all coaches, assistant coaches, managers, and volunteers in a coaching capacity at Glen Villa Juniors FC.

2. Professional Standards

As a coach at Glen Villa Juniors FC, I will:

- Hold and maintain relevant FA coaching qualifications for my role.
- Hold a valid Enhanced DBS check and keep it up to date.
- Complete and maintain FA Safeguarding Children training.
- Continue to develop my coaching knowledge and skills.
- Act in a professional manner at all times when representing the club.

3. Player Welfare

In relation to the players in my care, I will:

- Put the welfare and safety of players above all else at all times.
- Never physically punish or use any form of physical force on a player.
- Never use abusive, humiliating, or discriminatory language.
- Never isolate a player from the group as a form of punishment.
- Ensure training sessions and matchdays are safe and appropriately supervised.
- Report any safeguarding concerns immediately to the Club Welfare Officer.

4. Coaching Practice

In my coaching sessions, I will:

- Plan and deliver sessions that are appropriate for the age and ability of my players.
- Treat all players fairly and with equal respect regardless of ability, gender, or background.
- Give all players regular and equal opportunities to participate.
- Focus on player development and enjoyment, not just results.
- Provide constructive, positive feedback that supports player growth.

- Encourage a culture of respect, teamwork, and good sportsmanship.

5. Communication

When communicating with players, parents, and the club, I will:

- Communicate with parents through group messaging channels or club-approved methods.
- Never communicate privately with a young player on social media or messaging apps.
- Inform the club promptly of any incidents, concerns, or issues arising from my team.
- Respond to parent queries in a timely and professional manner.
- Copy another adult into any written communication with a young player where necessary.

6. On Matchdays

On matchdays, I will:

- Respect the match officials and their decisions at all times.
- Ensure my players and spectators behave in accordance with the club's codes of conduct.
- Never attempt to intimidate or argue with opposition coaches or officials.
- Manage the behaviour of spectators within my vicinity where possible.
- Ensure all players are collected safely by a parent or guardian after matches.

7. Consequences

Breaches of this Code of Conduct will be dealt with seriously by the club. Depending on the nature of the breach, consequences may include suspension, retraining requirements, or removal from the club. Serious breaches may be referred to the County FA.
